

TEACH-OUT SESSION

Professor Rebecca Boden

Research Director, New Social Research Programme,
University of Tampere, Finland

Thursday 12 March 2020 / 11am-12pm
Debating Chamber, Falmer House

Vice-Chancellors' Pay

Australian and UK vice-chancellors' pay, widely seen as excessive, has been a near constant source of public scandal for a number of years. In both countries, this is set in a context of worsening employment conditions for all but senior managers and, in the UK, a decade of fierce pay restraint.

This session explores this issue from a goorganisational performance. This is a ser remuneration undermines principles of fairness and diverts fnancial resources from educational and research organisational objectives.

Suggestions for reform will be made in conclusion.

UNIVERSITY OF SUSSEX