

School of Media, Arts and Humanities
Guidelines on eligible uses of the School Research Budget

General Principles:

- i. The awarding of funds from the general School research budget is part of the remit of the Media, Arts and Humanities Research Committee and applications will be considered and approved throughout the academic year

