

have the software removed.

6. Responsibilities

6.1. Licences to use software must be handled according to the terms and conditions stated.

6.2. Where software has been paid for licence keys have value and must be made available only to those entitled to use them and the privacy of the keys protected whether acquired personal or institutionally

6.3. The purchaser of the licence must ensure that they exert control over the licence keys to protect these falling into the public domain.

The purchaser of the licence must ensure that they exert control over the licence keys to protect these falling into the public domain.

Ownership:

Owner	Department/Team
Director ITS	ITS

Authors:

Author(s)	Department/Team
Jeremy Maris	Client Services

Contributors and Reviewers:

[illegible]